

Tweedmouth West Christmas Reading Challenge 45 Books at Bedtime

The Challenge: To share one book with your child each night before Christmas Eve

Read me a story and tuck me in tight, tell me you love me and kiss me goodnight.

07.11.17

Dear Mums, Dads and Carers,

All children need to share lots and lots of stories.

The most important stories are told by you, Mums, Dads and carers and the best place is in the child's home. If you share story time with your child, not only will you have fun together, you will be helping them to read, write and learn about the world when they get older.

From Friday 10th November to the 24th December there are 45 sleeps; we are asking that all children have at least one story at bedtime, every night.

To help us to find out about the range of books used and the amount of stories told, we are asking you to complete the following form (a printed version will come home in your child's reading folder) and return it to school, by Monday 15th January 2018. A prize draw will take place on Monday 23rd January where one child from each class will win a storybook.

We hope you take part in this challenge and enjoy many happy nights reading to your child in the lead up to Christmas.

Happy Reading.

Miss Lewins
